December 2018 - Issue 10

To Our Clients, Friends, and Family -

As 2018 draws to a close, we wish you all the best that the season and life have to offer.

It's our calling and our privilege to pursue justice for our clients. We deeply appreciate the trust you've placed in us.

We would love nothing more than for you and yours to experience the peace, joy, and wonder of the season.

Particularly at this time of year, we're reminded just how precious our connections with loved ones are. No matter your beliefs or traditions, it's a time to savor those connections, to cherish and hold close those dear to you.

Kindness and generosity - while never out of style - are more prevalent this time of year. So, even amid the hustle and bustle, the shopping and the parties, we hope that you'll be able to pause - take a moment and tap into the happiness around you.

From all of us here at Stephens Anderson & Cummings, may you have

SAC DONATES 100 TURKEYS to the Community Food Bank!

As we've said before, making a difference shouldn't be reserved for the courtroom.

Being of service - giving back - is important to us. So, for the 4th year in a row, Stephens Anderson & Cummings donated 100 turkeys to the Community Food Bank for Thanksgiving.

Helping out in this way is one of our favorite things to do at SAC. Not only is it fun, but the need is great, and we're thankful that we're able to be a part of the wonderful work that they do.

If you're looking for someplace to give this Holiday Season, consider the Community Food Bank. Of course, if you'd like to donate cash instead of food, they'll gratefully accept that, too. You can find the online donation page here.

Whether you're able to share of your talents or treasure or that most valuable thing of all - your time - year-end is a great opportunity to spread some love. Our wish is that it be returned to you many times over in the new year.
