March 2018 - Issue 1

Hello!

Welcome to the first issue of Let's Win This! - a monthly newsletter discussing the things you need to know about injury law.

Here at Stephens Anderson & Cummings, we believe that to make good decisions, you need good information.

When you or a loved one have been injured, you need to know your options.

And you need to be able to trust those you turn to for advice.

We'll always shoot you straight. If you trust us to help you, we'll spare no expense and leave no stone unturned in our efforts to see that you get the justice you deserve.

This month, we're talking about the most important aspect of any case - you.

I hope you find it informative and useful and that you'll share it with friends and family. And, in the coming months, I hope you'll keep reading Let's Win This! and let us know what you think.

If you have questions or if you or a loved one need a trustworthy personal injury lawyer, we're as near as a phone call, an email, or a chat through our website.

All the best -

The Most Important Part of Any Case: YOU

Personal injury cases have a lot of moving parts.

There are a lot of dates and deadlines to keep up with. There are a lot of strategic decisions that need to be made.

There is a lot of investigating to do. There are experts to interview and hire; there are choices about demonstrative evidence and presentation of witnesses.

There is a LOT of paperwork.

The insurance company and its defense team will fight tooth and nail to keep you from getting the justice you deserve. You need aggressive, smart, respected lawyers representing you. That's where we come in. We leave no stone unturned and spare no expense when we fight for you.

But we aren't the focus of the case.

The most important part of your case is you.

Your story is the one we'll be telling. You're the most important witness in the case. Without you, there simply wouldn't be a case.

When it comes to your case, you are our first priority. And taking care of yourself needs to be your first priority.

We're with You

Stephens Anderson & Cummings will be there every step of the way to help you and guide you through the claims process and through litigating your case, if necessary. And we'll be there armed with the tools, resources, personnel, and the drive to go to battle with the insurance company. We'll fight along with you to get you the justice you deserve.

But your case is about you – the damages you suffered, the losses that you experienced.

So, don't be surprised if our advice may be to focus on what's best for you – not what's best for the "case."

Your life has already been disrupted by an injury or a death that was someone else's fault. Our aim is to see you get justice for the things you've already suffered - not to make you suffer more - and to do so as quickly as possible.

Yes, we want to see you compensated as fully as possible. But we also want to see you recover your health as fully as possible. We want to see you enjoy life as fully as possible.

Maximizing the value of your claim or lawsuit is important but not as important as enhancing the quality of your life.

Priorities

Have you heard the old joke about someone being in a wreck, battered and bloody, and asking a bystander if they have a phone? The bystander offers to call an ambulance but the victim says "No, thanks. I want to call my lawyer."

At Stephens Anderson & Cummings, we believe that your well being takes priority over everything else.

Taking care of you and your family's well being means getting the medical treatment you need. If you're having trouble finding appropriate treatment for your injuries, we can help – but the point is that we want to make sure you get the treatment you need to ensure that you get back on your feet as best and as quickly as possible.

Because YOU are the most important part of any case.

Looking Ahead

In future issues of Let's Win This! we'll be talking about the ins and outs of personal injury law. Some topics will include:

- the mechanics of a personal injury or wrongful death case
- how the law fits different factual scenarios
- why courts require different kinds of evidence and
- what the standards are for that evidence

To mention just a few.

We'll also be talking about how Stephens Anderson & Cummings goes about fighting for you. Things like:

- how we go about investigating and proving your losses and the other side's liability
- what you can expect going through the process for a personal injury or wrongful death claim
- when, why, and how we use expert testimony to advance your case
- our use of cutting-edge technology to present and prove your case

Let us know if there are particular topics you'd like to see us cover in Let's Win This! You can "reply" and shoot us an email. Or visit us on our website (you can click here for that). We'd love to hear from you and we'll do our best to address the topics that you want to know more about.

So, stay tuned. We're going to cover a lot of ground. And, remember, anytime you want more information, we're only a phone call, an email, or a click away.

Stephens Anderson & Cummings Spotlight on the Firm

Your case is important. That's why we have systems in place at Stephens Anderson & Cummings to handle it effectively, efficiently, and aggressively, all the while focusing on the needs of each individual client.

Every case receives the personal attention of at least one - and sometimes all three - of our partners.

We're small enough to be able to give you personal attention, but big enough to be able to stand up to whatever the insurance companies might throw at us. Our firm has 4 lawyers, 5 legal assistants, and additional support staff - all working together to help you get the justice you deserve.

Our lawyers have 70 years of combined experience with a long track record of success representing folks who have been wronged or seriously injured. We take great pride and honor in representing the Davids of the world against the Goliaths.

While we're dedicated to representing you, we also believe that making a difference shouldn't be confined to the courtroom. Indeed, we believe in being involved and in giving back to our communities. We believe in service to others.

Last Thanksgiving, we donated 100 turkeys to the Community Food Bank. It's just one of the ways we try to be good neighbors. Check out the full story here.
